8. CONSENT & AUTHORIZATION

The information collected in this application should only be used to assess the applicant's suitability for the rental property. Landlords and property managers should collect only the information they reasonably need and handle applicant information securely.

The Applicant consents to the Landlord and/or agent of the Landlord collecting, using and disclosing the Applicant's personal information for the purpose of determining suitability and creditworthiness for the leasing of the premises. The Applicant authorizes the verification of all information contained in this application, including information obtained from personal references, employment contacts, landlord references and consumer reporting agencies. A consumer report containing credit and/or personal information may be referred to in connection with this rental, where legally permitted. This application is not a Rental or Lease Agreement. Any deposit submitted with this application shall be returned if the application is not accepted.

The Applicant represents that all statements made in this application are true and correct.
